

Columbia University Irving Medical Center
Clinical Psychology Postdoctoral Fellowship in Adult Mood, Anxiety and Personality
Disorders

Site Location: Columbia University Irving Medical Center Psychiatry in Midtown NYC

Co-Directors: Erin Engle Psy.D. & Elizabeth Loran Ph.D.

Contact: Elizabeth Loran Ph.D.

Phone Number: 212.326.8442

Email: egl2124@cumc.columbia.edu

To apply & arrange interview:

Email to Dr. Loran a cover letter, CV, & 2 letters of recommendation. Please email all materials together; not in separate messages.

Please Note: that all applicants must have completed their internship and successfully defended their dissertation prior to beginning the fellowship.

Applications will be accepted until Tuesday 12/1/20. All interviews will be conducted via Zoom.

Length of program & time commitment: This is a one-year clinical fellowship; start date negotiable July 1st to September 1st 2021 – June to August, 2022.

Salary: The fellowship has a salary of $55,000 per year in addition to benefits.

Description of setting: The Columbia University Irving Medical Center's Department of Psychiatry is one of the largest in the country in terms of faculty size as well as state, federal, and foundation research support and is currently among the top ranked in the nation for Psychiatry in the US News & World Report Best Hospital rankings. We have extraordinary clinical, educational, and research resources. The fellow will work in the University's growing Midtown site, treating a diverse, adult, outpatient population in the hospital's faculty practice organization.

Description of agency mission: Columbia University Irving Medical Center's Department of Psychiatry is a world-renowned center of excellence in patient care across three partner institutions. Across each of our midtown sites our mission is to provide state-of-the-art, comprehensive care to help our patients achieve their goals.

Description of fellowship experience:

- Fellow will conduct psychiatric intakes.
- Fellow will conduct individual psychotherapy.
- Fellow will co-lead group psychotherapy.
- Fellow will participate in clinical outreach.
- Fellow will participate in supervision, didactics, team meetings, and professional development opportunities. Supervision will be provided for psychotherapy, group therapy and psychiatric intakes.

- Fellow will work with and learn from an interdisciplinary team of psychologists, psychiatrists, social workers, and medical practitioners.

Ideal Candidates: Candidates will have prior experience working in a hospital setting and treating a diverse clinical patient population with a large depth and breadth of experience with different illnesses and treatment modalities, including but not limited to, DBT, CBT, Mindfulness-based treatments, and psychodynamic treatment interventions. Experiences working with personality disorders is highly preferred.

Columbia University Irving Medical Center has a strong commitment to diversity, equity and inclusion. As such applicants from traditionally under represented backgrounds in the field of psychology are highly encouraged to apply (i.e. American Indian, Alaska Native, Black, Hispanic, and Native Hawaiian). An ideal candidate will have an interest in fostering a culturally affirming dialogue, as illustrated by persistent self-awareness and regular self-examination, as well as considering the impact of race and inequality on clinical work.

Opportunities for specialization include

- Dialectical Behavioral Therapy
- Personality Disorder Treatment
- Trauma Treatment
- Family and Couples Treatment
- Day Treatment Program Rotation

Outpatient experience: The fellow will treat adult patients with mood, anxiety and personality disorders by providing individual psychotherapy and group psychotherapy.

Supervision arrangements/ratio: The postdoctoral fellow will be provided with a minimum of two hours of individual supervision for psychotherapy cases and evaluations, as well as group supervision and consultation. The fellowship will provide postdoctoral clinical hours and supervision necessary for licensure.

Columbia University is an Affirmative Action Equal Opportunity Employer