TRANSLATIONAL NEUROSCIENCE RESEARCH
AT COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY

Initial Application Period: September 10 – November 9, 2020

Finalists Notified: December 3, 2020

Funding Notification Date: January 21, 2021

Fellowship Start Date: July 1, 2021

The Paul Janssen Fellowship is awarded to an outstanding young physician-investigator (M.D. or Ph.D. degree) to conduct novel translational research in the field of neuroscience as it relates to psychiatric disease and medicine. The Paul Janssen Fellow will be assigned both a basic scientist mentor and a clinical investigator mentor from the faculty at Columbia University to serve as joint mentors. The fellow will take a basic observation made by the basic science mentor and apply it to the study of disease or treatment with the clinical research mentor.

Eligibility: Candidates from the international neuroscience community, holding an M.D. or Ph.D. degree, and preferably having completed initial fellowship research training, are invited to apply. Fellows at Columbia University or the New York State Psychiatric Institute/RFMH are encouraged to submit applications. ****Faculty are not eligible.

Funding: The award provides a stipend, commensurate with experience. The stipend provided may require supplemental funding by the mentors.

Length of Fellowship: For one year, and potentially renewable for a second year based on performance.

Preliminary Application Process (Deadline- November 9, 2020 by 5 pm): The following should be provided in 11 point font (Arial or Times New Roman) with a minimum of one-inch margins: 1) Face page letter identifying applicant and a brief description of previous training in medical research, previous research interests, current position and future research interests. 2) NIH biographical sketch (Section A: Personal Statement – not applicable). 3) Letters of support/reference from at least three (3) current or previous mentors (can be PDFs emailed).

A COMPLETE PROJECT PROPOSAL IS NOT REQUIRED UNTIL NOTIFIED YOU ARE A FINALIST.
